

CEMETERY CONSERVATION WORKSHOP

NATCHEZ CITY CEMETERY

SATURDAY—DECEMBER 1, 2012

9:00 AM TO 4:00 PM

$25 REGISTRATION PER PERSON—INCLUDES BOX LUNCH

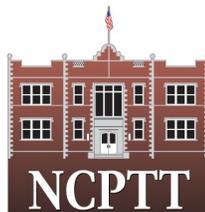

This one-day workshop will offer cemetery volunteers and professionals alike a general overview of the best materials and methods for cleaning and conserving historic cemetery monuments. The workshop will be led by Jason Church, Materials Conservator at the National Park Service’s National Center for Preservation Technology and Training. The morning session will be held at the offices of the Historic Natchez Foundation where lunch will be provided, before attendees head out to the Natchez City Cemetery for some hands on demonstrations. This is the first of four scheduled preservation workshops to promote the new Historic Preservation program coming soon to Copiah-Lincoln Community College. Space is limited so reserve your spot early.

Workshop Topics to Include:

- *Documentation and Master Plans
- *Basics for Cleaning and Repair
- *Do’s and Don’ts of Monument Cleaning and Restoration
- *Bring your own examples and questions for an opinion
